

LIBRARY EXHIBIT POLICY AND REGULATIONS

Library Exhibit Policy

Stamford Community Library and its Board of Trustees endorse the Library Bill of Rights and offer exhibit space to all groups and individuals regardless of beliefs or affiliations.

Displays of hobbies, collections, and articles of interest may be scheduled for display. Applications for such displays are available through the librarian. Decisions will be made by the librarian and/or the Board of Trustees.

Regulations

1. The library does not insure articles exhibited and is not responsible for theft or damage. Exhibitors must make their own arrangements for insurance if so desired.
2. It is the librarian's responsibility to schedule the displays.
3. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to:
 - a. Hang and dismantle the exhibit
 - b. Supply the library with an inventory and value list of the works exhibited.
4. Exhibitor must complete application for use of exhibit space
